REPORT OF ALMONERS OF FOSTER FUND.

Your committee beg to report that the amount placed in their hands has been used in every case where it seemed to be needed, and it has given substantial aid in each instance. Judging by the experience of the short time in which it has been available, we believe that the annual amount may all be expended in a manner to give much relief and comfort to our people.

We feel that the lasting gratitude of all the people of Warner is due to the memory of Mr. Foster for this thoughtful, liberal and beneficent gift, which is not only "a present help in time of need" but a perpetual blessing to the sick and helpless, and we trust an enduring monument to the generous giver.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Now that a board of health for towns is required by law of the state, and in consideration of the acknowledged growing importance of the practical sanitation of every community, it would seem advisable that the health officers should make a brief report. People are every year becoming better informed upon sanitary matters, and at last understand the advisability of having pure air to breathe, pure water to drink and proper food to eat, if they would ward off disease, or stand a chance of recovering when disease cannot be avoided.

Your Board for the past year have had repeated and important calls to attend to, and have endeavored to do their duty faithfully and according to law. In the spring there were several nuisances to be investigated, dead animals left above ground, uncared for sink spouts, closets and the like. It is needless to say that it is the nearest neighbors who have to do the informing; and this is right, for there is no reason why a family who care well for their own premises, should suffer in health from the carelessness or ignorance of their neighbors. The disposal of sink water and the contents of closets, naturally give most trouble and we earnestly recommend to the people of our village the necessity of putting in a system of sewerage as that seems to be the easiest solution of this perplexing problem; and now that the village precinct has a most excellent system of water works, the sewerage system may not necessarily be very expensive. The Board would recommend that sewer pipes be laid along Kearsarge, School, Geneva and Main streets, the expense of which may be borne by private corporations, if the precinct does not see fit to assume the outlay. Several villages in the state have such systems owned by corporations and they usually pay a good profit on the capital invested. For our central village, three systems at least would be required, costing from $300 to $500 each, to give ample and perfect drainage. The interest on these sums would be trifling and those who should be required to use each could well afford to pay ten to fifteen per cent. on the cost.

Your Board followed the example of other towns and sent a delegate to each of the two meetings of the State Association of Boards of Health, and took out a membership ticket, at a small expense, so as to be entitled to all the latest information on sanitary matters.

Your Board has to report an epidemic of membranous croup and diphtheria, some three or four cases of the former and seven of the latter having existed. We can't quite understand why these diseases should be classed separately, when most authorities agree that they are the same—membranous croup being really diphtheretic. The sputa of several suspected cases was sent away for expert analysis, and the diphtheria bacillus was found in every case. This involves a little expense, but shows the friends of the patient that they are not needlessly quarantined.

In conclusion we would respectfully ask the cooperation of all citizens in carrying on the work of sanitary reform, to the end that our beautiful town may become known as a pleasant and healthful place of abode.

FRED BEAN,	} Board of Health.

Report of the School Board.

In presenting our annual report, we wish to congratulate the parents and pupils and all others interested in the public schools of the town for the marked success with which they have been characterized. With one or two exceptions the teachers employed have had considerable training and experience in their work and consequently have infused life into their pupils. The discipline as a general thing has been good. There have been but few cases of truancy and these cases mostly among children of aliens. We think our citizens take a lively interest in the schools and work together to do what they can to encourage and make them a success.

The aim should be, and we think it is tending that way more than formerly, to confine the studies to the rudiments and first principles, rather than to go over too much ground; this is what we have endeavored to instill into the minds of teacher and pupil and we think we have succeeded to a large extent. The boy or girl that goes over the most ground is not always the one best fitted to enter the High School. The first principles of Arithmetic, Geography, English Grammar and Physiology should be thoroughly learned in the common school. It is inexpedient to hire thousand-dollar teachers to teach boys and girls who can be taught these things as well in the common schools. For this reason we have excluded Latin and higher mathematics from our schools.

It should be remembered that Warner has educational privileges and facilities superior to many rural towns—a Free High School to which every boy and girl ought to aspire, and go through the regular four years' course. It has been the aim of your committee to obtain teachers who are capable and who understand the best methods of training and fitting pupils to enter on a four years' course at the High School. We wish it distinctly understood that we do not encourage pupils to enter a preparatory and consequently a five years' course.

We publish the roll of honor because we believe it is an incentive to induce good attendance. We can cite several instances where a pupil has come to us expressing deep regret that something beyond his control prevented him from being on the list.

We also take a deep interest in the deportment column. We find that those who rank high in deportment, also rank high in scholarship, and we mark them as the future men and women who will take the lead in society and the business interests of the town. This is no chimerical view; history proves it.

Simonds Free High School.

Our last report of our High School ended March 1, 1898, and we have little to add by way of commendation of the work of the faculty and pupils, other than to emphasize and repeat the good things said in former reports. The spring term was somewhat interrupted by the sickness of Miss Jackson who was obliged to take a rest for quite a part of the term. Fortunately, the committee secured another able assistant in the person of Miss Elizabeth Underwood, of Springfield, Mass., a young lady of much ability and culture, and a graduate of Smith's College. Miss Underwood did very good work and gave excellent satisfaction, though she confessed to lack of experience in teaching and governing boys, her time having been spent in teaching in a girls' school. Miss Jackson having had a much needed rest from mental work, and having recovered her usual health, was gladly reengaged by the committee for another year and resumed her duties at the beginning of the fall term much to the satisfaction of all pupils and friends of the school. Prof. Saben was also obtained for another year, and has constantly been adding other laurels to those already well earned.

Owing to the large graduating classes of the two previous years, the decease of two, and the leaving school of one of the expected class, there was no graduating class for '98; hence, it was thought best to introduce what proved to be a very pleasing feature in the history of the school:—some literary exercises by members of the Alumni, teachers and friends of the school, and popular educators from abroad. Following is submitted a program of the occasion, June 17, 1898.

PROGRAM. Music, orchestra; invocation, Rev. E. L. Gates; introductory address, Prin. A. L. Saben; song, "Mignon," Harde-
lot, Mrs. E. H. Carroll; address, "History in the High School," Mr. Fred Myron Colby; poem, Mrs. Alice S. Woodbury; music, orchestra; essay, "Advantages of a College Education for Women," Miss Elizabeth Underwood; address, "Educational Reward," Rev. Geo. W. Gile, New London; music, "Joy! Joy! Freedom Today!," school; address, "The Education We Need," Dr. A. H. Campbell, Plymouth; closing address, Supt. J. R. Cogswell; music, "America," school.

The number of pupils admitted this year is eleven to the preparatory course, two to the Freshman year, and one to a special course. This proves to be somewhat in advance of some former classes admitted, in point of preparation at least, and is making very commendable progress. The average number of pupils for the year is nearly fifty; some terms over, and the summer term which usually runs lower than other terms, being somewhat under.

The order in all departments of the school continues excellent. The instruction in vocal music is of a high order, and well appreciated by the pupils and their friends. The Lyceum has kept up its good work of last year, but has averaged rather better. A contest of prize speaking was introduced in the school in order to stimulate a greater interest in elocution, and a public entertainment was given at the town hall, which was a decided success, both as to the really fine rendering of all the selections rehearsed by the nine students participating, and also as to the amount of financial receipts which was very gratifying. Some $25 of which receipts was used to buy some much-needed apparatus for the chemical laboratory. The teachers and students will please accept thanks for this generous act. We were particularly pleased that the judge in this contest was a well-known educator from Concord, Supt. Rundlett, who was well qualified to give an impartial decision. It is also a pleasure to know that all did so well that it required such discriminating knowledge in order to decide at all to whom the prizes should be awarded.

In conclusion we mention the number of pupils studying some of the important branches, that people in general may know something of the kind and amount of work being done at this school. Number studying Greek during year, 6; Latin, 26; Arithmetic, 27; Algebra, 20; Geometry, 7; Rhetoric, 3; Botany, 10; Physiology, 4; Chemistry, 22; Physics, 8; French, 10; General History, 10; Bookkeeping, 20; Grammar, 22; Geography, 22.

We hope the citizens of Warner High School District will take note of the good work being done in our High School and not forget it when they have any favors to bestow. Let us keep it up to its high standard; the course of study being now just the same as laid down in the first catalogue of the school. The tendency of the times is for a cheap and superficial education, which is a danger to our welfare as a nation. When God desires to make an oak tree, He takes well nigh to a hundred years; but He can make plenty perishable things in one short season. In education let us afford an opportunity for laying a solid foundation upon which to build a life and character as enduring as the oak.

We are pleased to note the formation of an association for the purpose of bringing together annually all the former students of S. F. H. S., whether graduates or not. This is a very important move towards keeping alive the friendship between old-time pupils and preserving the love of all for their well-loved High School.

Remarks.—During the year, 18 patrons of the Library have died: some of them among the most constant readers. Many more have left town for a temporary or permanent absence.

As a rule the class of reading is of a higher and more solid character. Books in special demand are those on methods of teaching, child culture, religion, biography, the so-called "nature" books and those relating to the Spanish war.

The children of the town, more and more, value the Library, and generally show good taste in their selection, often calling for "books about animals," flowers, and true stories of adventure. The pleasure and benefit they are receiving will have a broadening influence throughout their lives.

As in previous years, some of the choicest of the new publications in all departments have been purchased. It is safe to say that no town has readers more eager for up-to-date books, or more appreciative.

Hon. John E. Robertson has made his third annual donation of current fiction.

Mr. Lawrence G. Mitchell of Boston has given Bradford's History of Plimouth Plantation.

Mr. Stephen C. Davis has sent an elegant copy of the new History of Lowell.

Senator Chandler continues to supply the valuable volumes of Messages and Documents of the Presidents, as fast as published.
